Gemma Burford Enolengila

Gemma was born in 1978 in a quiet village in the south of England. Her mother worked in a library and her father was an accountant. When she was a student at Oxford University, she travelled to Tanzania and met her future husband, Lesikar, for the first time. The couple got married in 2003. When they had a baby (a daughter, Lucia) they decided to go and live in Tanzania. 'I want my daughter to have the best life possible,' said Gemma.

Lesikar is a Masai and lives in a village near Arusha in the north of the country. There is no electricity in the home and they walk almost a kilometre to get water. Gemma cooks simple dinners of corn and vegetables and she washes the clothes in a bucket. There is a small primary school in the village, but Gemma and 15 Lesikar will also teach Lucia at home.

Judy Boehmer

Judy had her first child, Adam, 27 years ago. She now has four sons and seven daughters and a pet dog, Bosco, but she wants more boys. Judy and her husband, Larry, live in Atlanta, 20 Georgia, but they also have a 10-metre-long motor home. The family sometimes travels more than 40,000 kilometres a year for their work. The children do not go to school, but they study at home with their parents.

The Boehmers are a circus family and all the children take part 25 in the show. They do different kinds of juggling and Margaret, the youngest, stands on one leg in her mother's hand. The first show of the Boehmer Family Jugglers was at a theme park in Iowa in 1989, and they now perform all over America.

1. Read the text and translate.

Who would you like as a neighbour?

A recent opinion poll asked 1,000 people in Britain this question. The surprise winner of the poll was Alan Titchmarsh - a gardening expert on BBC TV - with 29% of the vote.

The British are very interested in gardening and Titchmarsh is very popular. He is a best-selling writer and a famous TV face. He is even in Madame Tussaud's. To find out more about him, we spoke to some of Mr Titchmarsh's neighbours. We did not learn very much. 'He's a very quiet man and we don't see him much/' said one neighbour. 'We don't ask him for help with our gardens/' said another. 'He's a very busy .man.'

Titchmarsh, a very private man, lives in an eighteenth-century farmhouse in a small village in the south of England. Like many people, he likes quiet neighbours and he is happy where he lives.

The top woman in the poll was the Australian pop singer, Kylie Minogue.

1 How ?

2 I usually drive quite fast, especially on the motorway. What?

---

3 My father's hair is grey.

How ?

4 I know my teacher very well.
What ?

5 I usually have dinner at about eight o'clock.
How ?

6 I have six cousins.
What ?

I don't like pop music very much, but I like everything else.

85% of her voters were men. Ms Minogue lives in fashionable Chelsea in the west of London. Her neighbours include her sister Dannii, pop stars Madonna and Bob Geldof, supermodel Liz Hurley, Sean Connery and Formula One king, Bernie Ecclestone. It is an excellent place for star-spotters and Kylie Minogue fans.

The British like gardening and attractive Australian pop singers, but, it seems, they do not want to live next door to their prime minister.

He got only 3% of the votes in the poll. Is this because people do not want to live in Downing Street? Or is it because they do not like the prime minister?

1. Complete the sentences

(1) _____

Ireland now has one of the best education systems in the world. Class sizes are small, exam results are good and most children are happy to stay at school after the minimum leaving age of sixteen. It is easy to forget that the picture used to be very different

(2) _____

5 For years, Ireland had one of the most complicated education systems in the world. There were many different kinds of school, but most of them had a lot in common. Classes were large and the teaching was very traditional. As in many countries, teachers used to hit the children if they made mistakes (the government banned corporal punishment in 1982).

(3) _____

io Parents used to pay for their children's education and, as a result, there were schools for the rich and schools for the poor. Boys and girls went to different schools and studied different subjects. Nowadays, most schools are free and only about half the schools are single-sex. In many ways, education is now a woman's world. Girls do better than boys in their 15 exams, more girls go to university and most teachers are women.

(4) _____

At the end of secondary school, students take their final exams (the 'Leaving Certificate'). Compulsory subjects are maths, history, Irish and a foreign language. In addition, they must choose two or three extra subjects. Some of these, like Business Organization, help to prepare them for the world of work. This is very different from the past when Latin, Greek and Religion used to be the most important subjects.

GRAMMAR: past simple

In October last year, I was working at a school in Cambridge and it was only my second month in the job. At the end of the month the head teacher organized a party for all the new teachers. It was a good chance to get to know my new colleagues and I was really looking forward to it. As the party was on 31st October, I thought it was a Hallowe'en party. So, the day before the party, I went to a costume hire shop and got a witch's costume. When I arrived at the head's house, he opened the door and looked at me as if I was completely mad. All the other teachers were wearing normal clothes! Doug

It was the end of term in June and the students were doing their exams. I was in charge that day and, as usual before the start of the exam, I told the students all the rules: no talking, no mobile phones and so on. I was walking up and down between the rows of desks when suddenly my own phone rang. That was bad enough, but the phone had a really silly ring tone. It took me ages to find the phone in my bag and my face went bright red. One of the students was laughing so much that she fell out of her chair. Tamsin

Worst moment? It was one day last May. When I woke up in the morning, I wasn't feeling very well. But it was a beautiful day and I decided to go to school. In the first class I gave the students an exercise to do and sat down at my desk. It was hot and the sun was coming through the window and I fell asleep. I probably slept for only two or three minutes. Then I heard a noise and I woke up. All the children were laughing and the headmaster was standing at the door of the class! Fortunately, he was very sympathetic later in the morning when I explained that I was feeling ill. Kelly

1. Complete the sentences and translate the text.

I always knew that I had a Scottish name, but I always thought of myself as American. I never thought about my name. I was born, like my parents and grandparents before them, here in Lexington,

Kentucky. My father was in the Marines and (1) _____ Not many 5 families are more American than us.

Then, two weeks ago, I went to a conference of whisky producers here in Lexington. I counted 245 names on the conference programme and many of them were Scottish. I also met two brothers called Hamilton and they never stopped talking. They told me about the Hamilton clan 10 (the Scottish word for family) and about the Hamilton tartan. They told me about the first Lord Hamilton, who married the daughter of

King James II of Scotland. (2) _____ (The brothers came, would you believe it, from a place called Hamilton in Canada.)

Apparently, five million people live in Scotland, but there are more 15 than 30 million people of Scottish origin around the world. Many Scots went to live abroad in the nineteenth century to find land and jobs. (3)_____ They settled down, had families and some of them gave their names to their home towns. (4) _____

Here, in the state of Kentucky, it seems that most of the people you

20 meet have some Scottish origins. We came here poor, but we are everywhere now. (5)_____ How many of them are like me, I asked the Hamilton brothers. How many know almost nothing about their origins? To my surprise, I learnt that I was probably the only one. The Hamilton brothers thought I was very strange.

<sup>25</sup> But after the conference I was a changed man. Now, most days, I go to the Hamilton Family website and chat with James and David, the brothers from Ontario (and a hundred others).

Yesterday, I got my first copy of a magazine called Scots Abroad. I am also waiting for the tartan scarf that I ordered online. And next summer, there is a reunion of 30 Hamiltons in Edinburgh

Castle. (6) _____

Verdun

We live down by the river. It's a poor area and there's a lot of crime, but the shops are good and there are a few good restaurants. The shopping area is not very attractive, but it is changing. Public transport is excellent and we're near the city centre. In the summer, Verdun is the place to be. The river here is really beautiful and you can have picnics in the park. There isn't enough nightlife for us, so we go to the area near the university for that. Accommodation is cheap!!

Outremont

Outremont has many advantages. The best restaurants in town, the most beautiful park and the biggest houses. You feel safe here. You meet interesting, important people and it's good for business. There are not many Japanese restaurants and we do very well. When we're not working, we like having a coffee outside one of the cafés. We don't have much time to enjoy the area, but we like going up to the park at Mount Royal sometimes. The only problem, really, is that you need to speak French in this part of town (and we don't!).

COMMENT

IF YOU ASK ME ...

Sue Carey disagrees with her university professor

(1) _____ More and more people are living together and having children without getting married, she told us. The number of divorces is increasing all the time. It doesn't matter if you are single or married, she said with a smile of victory. "The prison of marriage belongs to an older generation!"

(2) _____ But now, twenty years later – is marriage dead? You do not need to think about it for long: go to any newsagent and look at the magazines on sale. On the cover of every popular magazine like Hello! someone is getting married. Or maybe someone is getting divorced. The stories sell the magazines and in thousands of offices around the world, people are sitting around and looking at the wedding photos of the rich and famous.

(3) _____ In the UK, people are waiting until they are older to get married, but the number of weddings is actually increasing. True, divorces are also going up, but people are getting married again, for a second, third or fourth time.

(4) _____ In the year after university, I went to the weddings of four of my friends. My own (first) marriage was two years later. We want to read about marriage, look at films and photos, and do it ourselves. It appears that we can't get enough of it. Sorry professor, but the conclusion seems clear: marriage is very much alive and well.

The Ruins of Machu Picchu

For centuries, the Inca city of Machu Picchu was lost in the jungle. Then, in 1911, the American explorer, Hiram Bingham, discovered the ruins of the city. It is one of the most extraordinary places in the world. The city ruins, the Inca bridge, the mountain views and the beautiful river valley below are all absolutely breathtaking.

Today it is also one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world. Many people choose to follow the Inca Trail, a centuries –old path of 43 km that takes three or four days on foot. Others take the train and then a bus for the last part of the journey.

Now a hotel company is going to build a cable car to the top of Machu Picchu. `The cable car is good news for Machu Picchu,` says a company spokesman. `There are going to be a lot more jobs for the local people. Looking after the ruins is expensive. With the extra money, you can spend more on looking after them. `

However the plan is not popular in Peru. Ana Redondo, a tour guide, explains the problem. There are already more than 300,000 tourists that go to Machu Picchu every year . The Inca Trail is crowded and dirty with old tea bags and water bottles everywhere. The new cable car is going to bring 400 tourists every hour! The company is also going to build a large hotel and tourist centre with souvenir shops, fast food restaurants and so on. It is the end of Machu Picchu.`

Ana is an activist who belongs to an organization that wants to save Machu Picchu. She says that the organization is going to stop the company`s plans. `` Tomorrow we are meeting government ministers.

Next week some people from UNESCO are coming here to look at the plans. Next month we are organizing an international conference. We are not going to stop until the cable car idea is dead.`

GRAMMAR: future 1 (future plans)

We can use both am/is/are going to + infinitive and the present continuous to talk about plans in the future.

The new cable car is going to bring 400 tourists every hour.

Some people from UNESCO are coming here.

Often we can use either form, but when we want to show that the plan is more arranged/fixed, we use the present continuous.

The company is going to build a large hotel.

(This is their plan.)

(The plan is fixed in our diaries.)

There are more than 400 books about Elvis Presley. There are books about his music, his films , his life, his death, his religion – and his food . There is the Presley Family Cookbook. The Elvis Presley Cookbook , Elvis ‘Favorite recipes , and now Eating the Elvis Presley Way. What makes this book different? To begin with, this is not a cookbook. You can find recipes here, but this book is the story of Elvis life. It is the story of the food that he ate and the people who cooked it for him. And an extremely interesting life it was, too.

The food in the first two or three chapters is quite normal-baby food, boring school dinners, army meals when he was doing his military service, that sort of thing. But later, when Elvis was rich and famous, it is a very different story. With all the money in the world. Elvis choose to eat like a child. Elvis got up late and his first meal of the day was breakfast at five o clock in the afternoon: bacon and eggs, or sausage and eggs . After that, it was Snacks: pizza and hot dogs, hamburgers and fries, chocolate and cakes-all day and every day . Elvis even had a fridge in his bedroom for his favorite snacks.

As the years passed, Elvis eating problems became really serious. One day, when Elvis was going to the White House to meet the President, he was feeling a bit hungry and ate 250g of chocolate and then 12 donuts in his taxi. Another time, he ordered a large ice cream for breakfast. He ate it quickly, ordered a second, a third, a fourth and fifth before falling asleep again. Elvis last meal before he died was four scoops of ice cream with six chocolate cookies

Reality TV.

1. The first reality TV show in the world was called Expedition Robinson and it was shown in Sweden in 1997. Half the population of the country watched the final episode and a new kind of TV programme was born. Two years later in Holland, the first series of Big Brother was filmed. Again, it was a fantastic success and the final programme was watched by 15million people. There are now more than 20 countries around the world which have Big Brother or Survivor (Expedition Robinson) on their TV screens. The ordinary people who take part in the programmes are known by millions of people in their own countries and reality TV has become big, big business.

2. For the TV producers, reality TV is a dream come true because many of the programmes cost nothing to make. At some point, the television viewers are asked to telephone the programme – to vote or to apply to take part in the show. It is the cost of these telephone calls that pays for the shows. One of the most popular shows is Pop Idol. In the show, a group of attractive young people are made into pop stars. TV viewers vote for their favourite person on the show. The winner makes record, his or her pictures are published on the covers of magazines, millions of copies of the record are sold and then ... they are quickly forgotten.

3. But not everyone is happy about reality TV. In Portugal, two TV channels got into trouble because they showed too much of the private lives of the people in the shows. In France, reality TV is called “rubbish TV” and the studios of Loft Story (Big Brothers) were attacked three times in one week. In Greece, Big Brother was described as ‘an insult to human rights and civilization’. But despite the problems, reality TV continues to do well well in most countries and it will be here for some time to come.

Reading

Ex.1.P.90. Read the magazine article and explain the connection between Oscars and raspberries.

Tonight is the night that all Hollywood is waiting for. The stars are wearing their best designer clothes and some of them are thinking about speech they are hoping to make later. The limousines arrive at the red –carpeted entrance to the luxury Kodak Theatre and the stars are photographed by hundreds of hungry paparazzi. There are thousands in the audience, and the ceremony is watched by millions of TV viewers around the world. The winners are instant celebrities and they will earn mega –bucks with more ticket sales and new contracts. Yes, folks, it's Oscars time.

The academy Awards started back in 1929 and the first ceremony was attended by 250 people, who paid $10 for a dinner ticket. The winners' names were published by the newspapers earlier that evening, so there were no surprises. Two years later, librarian at the American Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences said that the Statue awards looked like her Uncle Oscar. The Academy Awards became Oscars and now, over 75 years later, TV companies pay more than 20 million for the rights to the show. For the advertisers and designers, the record companies and the film studios, for the stars themselves, the Oscars is big business.

Ex.2.P.91. Read the article again and say if the sentences below refer to the Oscars (O) or the Golden raspberries (R).

1. A ticket for the ceremony cost $ 10.
2. This ceremony takes place first.
3. Madonna won a top award for acting.
4. They started 25 years ago.
5. The winners make speeches when they get their award.
6. Millions of people watch the ceremony on TV.

8. They are nabbed after someone's uncle.

1. What kind of animals do people have as a pets in your country?
2. Which is your favourite animal? Why?

Read the text then translate.

The United States of Animals.

For years , I have thought that we Americans are probably crazy. Crazy about animals , that is. But now I am sure . I saw an ad in the paper the other day for the Ritz Hotel in Miami which has been open since September 2002. It has a special dog program, , with dog menus, dog movies and dog music in the library. It sounds perfect for Oprah Winfrey who never travels without her dogs . I wonder what the hotel does for other animals of the stars . George Clooney, for example , has had a pig (called Max) for many years and Leonardo DiCaprio has a pet lizard.

In the same newspaper was an article which proves my point . The article , Hollywood's Super- Vet Tells All, was about Dr Amy Attas. Dr Attas sounds perfectly normal , unlike some of her customers .. Dr Attas has run a veterinary practice , called CityPets , for the last ten years . Her customers are the rich and famous and, since she began the practice, she has looked after the pets of people like Naomi Campbell, Joan Rivers and Uma Thurman .

One of her best stories is about a late- night phone-call that she received from the wife of hockey star, Wayne Gretzky . Their dog was crying and Wayne could not sleep . If Wayne doesn't sleep , he doesn't play good hockey, said the wife. The vet visited the house and examined the dog which had a – cold ! Another time , she had a call from Cher , who was in Italy . Cher wanted to bring an Italian dog home with her. It had a skin problem and she wanted Dr Attas to come to the airport to look after it. At midnight.

How often have you had a headache in the last twelve months? How many stomach aches have you had? Have you sometimes found it difficult to breathe? Have you had any skin problems? How often have you wanted to cry?

If you answer to three or more of these questions is “too often” you are probably suffering from stress. And if you suffering from stress, you are not alone. One half of the adult population has had stress- related symptoms in the last year and many of them have needed help of some kind. Stress is now the major health problem of our times.

Stress itself, is not an illness, but it can certainly contribute to illnesses, some of them serious. When you feel under stress , your body produces a result, the body needs more oxygen and your heart rate and blood pressure go up, At its most serious, this can lead to the heart problems, but stress is also discovered that stress can lead to the loss of brain cells.

The most common cause of stress is over-work , but a difficult boss or problems with your colleagues are also common causes . Some jobs are more stressful than other , with teachers and police officers at the top of the scale and beauty therapists at the bottom . From time to time , we hear of celebrities suffering from stress , footballers like Ronaldo or the American actress , Winona Ryder.

At the dentist

When you have a toothache or some mouth disturbance, you go to a dentist.

Кафедра общеобразовательных дисциплин	044-73/11-98
Методические рекомендации	80 стр из 112 стр

A patient can make an appointment with the doctor at the reception himself or over the telephone. The reception area at a dental clinic is very nice and the atmosphere of this room is warm and welcoming.

When a patient comes to the dentist for the first time, the doctor asks him some questions about his present complaints, his dental history and his health in general. He must know if the patient suffers from any kind of allergy, heart diseases, diabetes and so on. Then doctor examines his teeth and surrounding tissues, checks his bite. If it is necessary, the doctor directs the patient for X-ray examination, or to other specialist. Then the doctor must decide what type of treatment or restoration is the most suitable for the case.

Dental therapist puts fillings, inlays and treats gum diseases. He also corrects malocclusion. If the tooth is too bad, the dental surgeon extracts it. The dental orthopedist makes crowns, bridges and prosthesis.

We know that dental treatment can cause pain and discomfort. That's why local anesthesia is used to reduce these unpleasant sensations.

We must take care of our teeth and undergo regular check-ups twice a year.

Office Worker Flip Flops Out of a Job.

‘You can’t wear those here!’ It was a hot summer day , and instead of the usual ‘Good morning’ from his boss , Philip Dale was told to go home and change out of his casual shorts and flip flops. He refused and , by the end of the morning , he was out of a job. ‘I work in an office and we don’t have to meet clients . Why can’t I wear what I want ? ‘ said Mr Dale. ‘ Women can wear skirts and shorts . Why do men have to wear hot trousers and ties?’

Home comforts.

With the opening this week of a new branch of Home Comforts, Kyra Komac now has 25 stores in her successful international chain of home and furniture shops . But the new store, in London's Camden High Street , takes her back to where it all Started . She talks about how the business began . When I was little , my mother began selling vegetarian food from a stall at Camden Market. She couldn't leave me at home on my own, so I had to go to the market with her.

To begin with , I didn't have to do anything. I just sat there , and my mum told me jokes and stories so I didn't get bored . When I got older , I gave my mum a hand and really enjoyed it. Then , one year , my uncle gave me a book for Christmas . It was all about making candles and I loved it. I was fourteen, and I didn't have to go to the market anymore because Mum could leave me at home on my own . I spent my free time making candles of all different shapes and sizes . I made hundreds of them.

One day , my mother was ill so I had to go to the market on my own . I decided to take some candles with me and see if I could sell them. They were sold out in twenty minutes! The next week , my mum gave me some money to buy some wax to make more candles . Again, they sold out really quickly.

Imagine no possessions ...

1 Oxford Street, in England's capital city, is not known for cultural events. But for ten days in early 2001, it was the address for a fascinating art 'performance': Michael Landy's 'Break Down'. Inside an old department store, the 37-year old artist destroyed every one of his 7,006 personal possessions.

2 'Break Down' took Landy three years to plan. His socks, his fridge, his passport – everything he owned was pilfered and labelled. The details were entered into a computer. Then a huge industrial machine for breaking things was moved into the empty S&A clothes store. Finally, on 24 February 2001, Landy and ten assistants in blue uniforms began breaking each listed item. One assistant pulled apart Landy's Saab car. Another tore up Landy's family

3 Landy said he didn't want to make people feel bad. But many of the 45,000 people that came to see 'Break Down' were unhappy. Some photographs. Others 'worked' on his furniture and clothes. Then the pieces were placed in plastic yellow boxes for Landy to push into the machine. They closed the supermarket outside London. He finished with personal items that he could never replace: his paintings, his father's old coat. The result was six tonnes of useless rubbish.

felt it wasn't right to throw away things that the poor could use. Others said Landy was doing the whole thing to become famous. John tried the clothes on in the shop. Almost everybody, however, was excited in some way by the event. 'What was he trying to say?' they wondered. Landy gave a number of different answers to this question. 'The only thing you can take away from this,' he once said, 'is your experience of it. That's the most important thing to me: it's not for sale.'

Trinity College

Trinity College, Dublin, became the first Irish university when it opened in 1594. All the students studied the same subject – Latin, Greek, mathematics, science and philosophy. 1834, the university allowed students to study specialized subjects. Eight years later, the university opened a department of engineering. In 1925, the first students entered the university's business school.

At the beginning, Trinity College was only for Protestants. The first Catholic students arrived two hundred years later. Many famous writers studied at Trinity. Jonathan Swift (who wrote Gulliver's Travels) and Bram Stoker (who wrote Dracula) both went there. The first woman did not enter Trinity College until 1904. Mary Robinson, who became the first woman Irish president in 1990, studied law at Trinity in the 1960s.
